

A person with dreadlocks, wearing a dark cap and a light-colored vest with a dark cross-like logo, is shown in profile, looking towards the right. The background is a cityscape at dusk or dawn, with warm, golden light and blurred lights from buildings and streets. The overall mood is contemplative and hopeful.

Serve our City

Missional Opportunities | Spokane, WA.

City Gate

Seeks to serve and welcome disenfranchised people for a hot meal. The downtown kitchen doubles as a church and serves Spokane's homeless population.

Participate by: Preparing and serving a meal.

Contact: Brenda Fredericks (509) 990-1951 | fivericks@gmail.com

Dept. of Children and Family Services

DCFS works with families to assure the safety and well-being of children by finding safe alternatives to out-of-home placements.

Participate by: Appreciating the staff and case workers through office parties, fulfill material needs of local foster children.

Contact: Erik Larson (509) 496-6327 | larsoc@dshs.wa.gov

Embrace, WA

They work extensively to support foster care families and workers while providing loving touches for children in foster care.

Participate by: Preparing Welcome Boxes or duffle bags for kids entering care, spruce up the welfare office where children in state custody spend time, provide an appreciation lunch to DSHS workers, drive foster kids to appointments, provide respite care, or put on special activities.

To get involved visit: <https://embracewa.org/contact-us>

GraceSon House

Provides housing and mentoring for pregnant/teen mothers ages 13-18. GraceSon House is one of the only facilities that accommodates mothers who are 15 and younger.

Participate by: Volunteering as a Mentor (meeting with a resident on a weekly basis), provide respite Care or by participating in our Program Nights (providing Bible study, skills classes, education, etc).

Contact: Rachel Sperry 509-309-7155 or aa.graceson@gmail.com

Hope House

Operates as an overnight safe shelter for Spokane homeless women.

Participate by: Provide a meal for shelter guests, volunteer regularly at the shelter.

Contact: Heather Thomas Taylor hthomas-taylor@voaspokane.org (volunteer applications submissions)

iChoice

Empowers women facing unplanned pregnancies with medical help, hope, and resources.

Participate by: Mentoring, advocate, assist with driving to appointments, host a young mom, provide a baby shower, etc.

Contact: Nancy Seefeld (509) 462-4000 to volunteer

Jonah Project

Aims to end sex slavery in Spokane by creating an avenue for victims of trafficking to reach out for help and receive compassionate, transparent aftercare.

Participate by: Provide meals at the Safe House, mentor, tutor, or advocate for those rescued, compile materials and supplies (clothing, toiletries, housewares, etc).

Contact: Diana McMillan (509) 701-1725 | diana.jonahproject@outlook.com

Project ID

Serves people with intellectual disabilities in the Spokane area by operating a recreational center that focuses on socialization, work, and personal development.

Participate by: Partner at a special event or as a behind-the-scenes volunteer, spend evenings playing basketball, doing crafts with members

Contact: Bob Hutchinson (509) 475-7185 or visit <https://projectidspokane.org/get-involved/volunteer/>

Teen Challenge

Equips individuals in their addiction recovery process.

Participate by: Deliver care packages, serve a meal, offer ground maintenance, visit regularly to develop supportive relationship with teens in the program, facilitate seasonal fundraising events.

Contact: Terrance Nelson (509) 244-5610 | terrance.nelson@teenchallengepnw.com

Union Gospel Mission

Dreams of ending homelessness in Spokane by offering a pathway to a different life through facilitating change, sharing the gospel, and helping with job training.

Participate by: Preparing and serving a meal together at the shelter, Provide a worship service for the Women's Shelter.

Contact: Lauri Willson (509) 535-8510 (meals) or Anastasia Hall (484) 302-6202 (worship)

World Relief

Provides refugee resettlement assistance, and immigration services.

Participate by: Assemble Welcome & Household kits, tutor, mentor, transport, or host newly arrived refugees.

Contact: Nancy Goodwin (509) 484-9829 x146 | ngoodwin@wr.org

A Childs Hope Spokane

We are a non-profit, licensed child placement agency providing no-fee adoption and foster/adopt services to Christian families in Spokane County.

Participate by:

Volunteering at fundraisers/events, cleaning office space, purchase items from Amazon Wish List, and provide service to one of their foster/adopt families.

Contact: info@achildshopespokane.org or www.achildshopespokane.org